CHECKLIST

If you are applying for participation in the Scheme:

1. Complete Part A of the form on pages 1-3.
2. Complete "Payment" section and, if paying by cheque, make payable to "The Law Society of NSW".
3. If appropriate, attach a sample of current letterhead as an example of your Law Practice's method of disclosure of limitation of liability. The disclosure statement, "Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation" is prescribed, and must be printed in a size not less than the face measurement of Times New Roman typeface in 8 point.
4. If selecting a Limitation Amount above $1.5 million provide a copy of top-up insurance certificate to the level selected.
5. If selecting the Discretionary Higher Monetary Ceiling Class also complete the Application for Discretionary Higher Cap form (available from www.lawsociety.com.au/solicitorsscheme) and provide evidence of top-up insurance held to the level nominated. The Discretionary Higher Cap will apply from the date of notification to the Law Practice by the Law Society of its authorisation of that discretionary higher maximum amount of liability.

6. Ensure that each legal practitioner on the application form has a notification SM indicating that he/she is a current Solicitor Member of the Law Society or LM if a Life Member. If SM or LM are not noted next to the legal practitioner's name on the application form, then it will be necessary for your Law Practice to take appropriate action to ensure the legal practitioner is a Member of the Law Society to be eligible to join the Scheme.
7. On payment, a tax receipt is issued to confirm your participation in the Scheme. This should be retained for your records.

If you are applying for exemption from participation in the Scheme:

1. Complete Part B of the form on this page.
2. If previously a Scheme Participant, you must ensure that the disclosure statement is removed from your Law Practice's documentation.

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION NOTICE

By completing this form you are providing personal information to The Law Society of New South Wales (we, us, or our).

Who do we collect the personal information from?

We generally collect your personal information directly from you. However, in some cases, we may receive your personal information from a third party (for instance if we receive a complaint) and when it is relevant to our statutory responsibilities (for instance other regulators who have dealt with you).

What are the purposes for which we collect personal information?

We collect your personal information to:

- fulfil our functions and responsibilities under, and facilitate compliance with, the Legal Profession Act 2004 (NSW), legal profession legislation (as defined in the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act (2014)), the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and associated regulations (which require and authorise us to collect certain information) including to maintain regulatory and corporate records;
- fulfil our role as your professional association including:
 - maintaining membership records
 - communicating with you to offer products, services and events and when you obtain a product or service or come to an event
 - to conduct research and provide public representation; and
 - provide information to third parties as authorised or required by law.

What if we didn't collect this personal information?

Without your personal information we may not be able to process your application or request, perform our statutory functions or provide you with some or all of the services of the Law Society as a professional association.

Who are the types of bodies and persons to whom we usually disclose your personal information?

Your personal information may be provided to:

- entities distributing information relevant to you as a legal practitioner or member of the Law Society;
- LawCover and other professional indemnity insurers and practising certificate funders;
- our professional advisors and contractors (strictly on the basis that the information is to be used only for providing services to the Law Society and must not be disclosed);
- Australian regulators and government entities (such as the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner) and overseas regulators; and
- organisations that represent the legal profession such as the Law Council of Australia and Regional Law Societies.

Disclosure overseas

If you practise in a foreign country (or apply to do so) we may send your personal information overseas in response to an inquiry from the relevant authority in that place.

You can access and correct your personal information

Our privacy policy contains information about how you may access your personal information and seek correction of such information; as well as how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how we will deal with such a complaint. Our privacy policy is accessible via a link appearing at the foot of each web page at www.lawsociety.com.au.
