For your information

A notice under Section 55(1) of the Legal Profession Act, 2004 must be given in writing to the Law Society Council within 7 days after the conviction or being charged. Section 55(1) does not apply to a "show cause" event to which Chapter 2, Part 2.4, Division 7 Legal Profession Act, 2004 applies.

As to which offences are required to be disclosed, see the Admissions Rules.

Section 55, Legal Profession Act, 2004 provides as follows:

55 Statutory condition regarding notification of offence

- (1) It is a statutory condition of a local practising certificate that the holder of the certificate:
 - (a) must notify the appropriate Council that the holder has been:
 - (i) convicted of an offence that would have to be disclosed under the admission rules in relation to an application for admission to the legal profession under this Act, or
 - (ii) charged with a serious offence, and
 - (b) must do so within 7 days of the event and by a written notice.
- (2) The regulations, or the legal profession rules if the regulations do not do so, may specify the form of the notice to be used and the person to whom or the address to which it is to be sent or delivered.
- (3) The giving of notice in accordance with Division 7 (Special powers in relation to local practising certificates—show cause events) of a conviction for a serious offence satisfies the requirements of subsection (1) (a) (i) in relation to the conviction.
