APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION FROM MCLE REQUIREMENTS

Full Name: _____

Law Society ID No: _____
(if known)

Postal Address: _____

Email: _____

MCLE YEAR: 1 April 20 _____ to 31 March 20 _____

BASIS ON WHICH EXEMPTION IS SOUGHT:

(Part 42 of the Law Society Professional Conduct and Practice Rules)

- Rule 42.6.1 The practitioner has been in practice for a period exceeding forty (40) years and does not practise as a principal;
- Rule 42.6.2 The practitioner, by reason of the practitioner's geographical location, any physical disability, or any particular exigencies of practice, may experience particular hardship or difficulty in completing the required number of MCLE units. Please attach a letter detailing circumstances.
- Rule 42.6.3 The practitioner has been or will be absent from practice because of parenting leave, unemployment or illness. Please attach a letter detailing circumstances.
- Rule 42.6.4 The practitioner has reduced hours of practice owing to part time or casual employment; Please attach a letter detailing circumstances.
- Rule 42.6.5 The practitioner's circumstances are such that the practitioner is required to hold a practising certificate but is not engaged in legal practice. Please attach a letter detailing circumstances.

Exemptions in relation to Rules 42.6.3, 42.6.4 and 42.6.5 are generally granted on a pro rata basis. Please advise the period of absence from practice within the MCLE year and whether you gained any units prior to commencing, or on return from, the leave or absence.

The Licensing Committee meets once a month to consider applications for exemptions from MCLE requirements. You will be notified shortly after the meeting date of the outcome of the meeting.

I certify that the information on this application and attachments is true and correct.
