I / The law practice

1. Authorise the Law Society to provide particulars of the application to other relevant persons including the Law Societies in the other States and Territories in which the applicant practices, and to record particulars of the applicant and the specified higher maximum amount of liability on its database,
2. Herewith provide a current certificate of insurance concerning the insurance policy applying with respect to the higher maximum amount of liability sought under this application (if not already provided),
3. Undertake to notify the Law Society of any subsequent change in the circumstances referred to in this application that are relevant to the Law Society's exercise of its discretionary authority, including where insurance of an appropriate standard and level becomes no longer or is unlikely to continue to be reasonably available in the future,
4. Undertake to apply if appropriate to the relevant occupational association in the other jurisdictions of which the applicant is a member for a higher maximum amount of liability that is consistent with the amount specified by the Law Society, where a scheme applies to me/the law practice under Professional Standards Legislation of another State or Territory,
5. Agree that any reasonable period of notice may be given to me/the law practice by the Law Society of a change to the higher maximum amount of liability where the Law Society in its absolute discretion determines that the period of notice is reasonable in the circumstances, including where I/the law practice cease/s to have the benefit of insurance of an appropriate standard and level,
