GENERAL NOTES

APPLICATION & PRACTICE NOTES

- An application that fails to provide mandatory information (including payment), or provides incomplete or misleading information, will be treated as an incomplete application.
- An incomplete application will be treated as 'not received' for the purposes of the legal profession legislation, and will be returned to the applicant. It will then be up to the applicant to decide whether or not to proceed with the application.
- If the applicant wishes to proceed, the applicant will need to resubmit their application by completing the missing/incomplete information in their original application and redeclaring the same application. Until the requisite information is provided, the Law Society Council will not consider varying a practising certificate.
- A practising certificate will not be granted unless professional indemnity insurance requirements are met. A law practice must have professional indemnity insurance cover before commencing to engage in legal practice. This insurance must be maintained at all times while engaged in legal practice.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

NOTE A: DETAILS OF THE CHANGE

If you are commencing practise as a supervising legal practitioner at a community legal service, you will be required to complete the relevant professional indemnity insurance exemption form and the under taking by a solicitor engaging in legal practice as a principal at a community legal service form which are available on The Law Society's website.

If you are commencing practise as a principal of an incorporated legal practice, you will be required to provide evidence that you have been appointed as a director of the relevant company from ASIC.

NOTE B: PRACTICE DETAILS

If a new incorporated legal practice is being established, you will be required to complete the incorporated legal practice notification form which is available on The Law Society's website and provide the relevant ASIC documents.

NOTE C: ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

If your practising certificate is currently subject to condition 2, a submission by way of a statutory declaration addressing the Supervised Legal Practice Guidelines will need to accompany this application. This application will need to be determined prior to your commencement as a principal. An application for the removal of condition 2 is available on the Law Society's website.

All practitioners seeking to vary their practising certificate to that of a principal must satisfy the Law Society that they have complied with Condition 3 of their practising certificate. Condition 3 requires that the holder must complete a Practice Management Course (PMC) before being authorised to engage in legal practice as a principal of a law practice. This discretionary condition is imposed pursuant s 53 Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) and Rule 16(b)(ii) Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015. Any application for a principal's practising certificate, in the absence of having completed a PMC, must be made in writing to the Licensing Committee, which meets monthly. Please note that the Committee will need to be satisfied that there are exceptional and extenuating circumstances which warrant the issue of a principal's practising certificate despite the applicant not having completed a PMC. The Committee may impose other conditions and require undertakings pending completion of a PMC.

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION NOTICE

By completing this form you are providing personal information to The Law Society of New South Wales (we, us, or our).

Who do we collect the personal information from?

We generally collect your personal information directly from you. However, in some cases, we may receive your personal information from a third party (for instance if we receive a complaint) and when it is relevant to our statutory responsibilities (for instance other regulators who have dealt with you).

What are the purposes for which we collect personal information?

We collect your personal information to:

- fulfil our functions and responsibilities under, and facilitate compliance with, the Legal Profession Act 2004 (NSW), legal profession legislation (as defined in the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act (2014)), the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) and associated regulations (which require and authorise us to collect certain information) including to maintain regulatory and corporate records;
- fulfil our role as your professional association including:
 - maintaining membership records
 - communicating with you to offer products, services and events and when you obtain a product or service or come to an event
 - to conduct research and provide public representation; and
 - provide information to third parties as authorised or required by law.

What if we didn't collect this personal information?

Without your personal information we may not be able to process your application or request, perform our statutory functions or provide you with some or all of the services of the Law Society as a professional association.

Who are the types of bodies and persons to whom we usually disclose your personal information?

Your personal information may be provided to:

- entities distributing information relevant to you as a legal practitioner or member of the Law Society;
- LawCover and other professional indemnity insurers and practising certificate funders;
- our professional advisors and contractors (strictly on the basis that the information is to be used only for providing services to the Law Society and must not be disclosed);
- Australian regulators and government entities (such as the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner) and overseas regulators; and
- organisations that represent the legal profession such as the Law Council of Australia and Regional Law Societies.

Disclosure overseas

If you practise in a foreign country (or apply to do so) we may send your personal information overseas in response to an inquiry from the relevant authority in that place.

You can access and correct your personal information

Our privacy policy contains information about how you may access your personal information and seek correction of such information; as well as how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how we will deal with such a complaint. Our privacy policy is accessible via a link appearing at the foot of each web page at www.lawsociety.com.au.
