GEORGINA DENT Editor, Women's Agenda

Georgina is a journalist, editor, former lawyer and prominent advocate for women's empowerment and gender equality. In 2005 Georgina graduated from QUT with a double degree in business and law, with distinction.

At the completion of her tertiary studies Georgina joined Minter Ellison lawyers in Sydney and was admitted as a solicitor in 2006. In 2008 she left law to pursue a career in journalism, joining BRW magazine as a reporter.

The Sydney-based mother of three, is now the contributing editor of Women's Agenda, Australia's leading publication for career-minded women and has a fortnightly column in The Sun Herald & The Age on Sunday. Georgie has appeared on ABC's Lateline, The Drum, Weekend Breakfast, Channel 9's Today Show and Sky News.

She was recognised for her advocacy in the inaugural Women's Empowerment Journalism Awards in Singapore in 2014, where she was a finalist in the journalist of the year category. In 2015 she was a finalist in the inaugural Our Watch Walkley Awards to recognise excellent reporting of domestic violence.
