

THE LAW SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS SCHEME

APPLICATION FOR DISCRETIONARY HIGHER CAP

To be completed by Law Practices choosing a Discretionary Higher Monetary Ceiling.
This form must be submitted with or after an Application for Participation in The Law Society of New South Wales Professional Standards Scheme.
All higher cap applications will be referred to the Scheme Administration Committee for consideration at its monthly meeting.
This form must be lodged seven (7) days prior to the Committee meeting for it to be considered at that month's meeting.

Clauses 5.1 and 5.2 of The Law Society of New South Wales Professional Standards Scheme (the Scheme) provide –

- 5.1 The Law Society Council has discretionary authority, on application by a Participating Member, to specify in relation to the Participating Member, a higher maximum amount of liability than would otherwise apply under the Scheme in relation to him or her either in all cases or in any specified case or class of case.
- 5.2 If, in the exercise of discretion under clause 5.1, the Law Society Council has specified a higher maximum amount of liability than would otherwise apply under the Scheme in relation to a Participating Member, after satisfying itself that there is evidence of top up Professional Indemnity Insurance commensurate with the higher maximum amount of liability sought, then the maximum amount of liability in relation to that Participating Member is that higher maximum amount.

 - maintaining membership records
 - communicating with you to offer products, services and events and when you obtain a product or service or come to an event
 - to conduct research and provide public representation; and
 - provide information to third parties as authorised or required by law.

What if we didn't collect this personal information?

Without your personal information we may not be able to process your application or request, perform our statutory functions or provide you with some or all of the services of the Law Society as a professional association.

Who are the types of bodies and persons to whom we usually disclose your personal information?

Your personal information may be provided to:

- entities distributing information relevant to you as a legal practitioner or member of the Law Society;
- LawCover and other professional indemnity insurers and practising certificate funders;
- our professional advisors and contractors (strictly on the basis that the information is to be used only for providing services to the Law Society and must not be disclosed);
- Australian regulators and government entities (such as the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner) and overseas regulators; and
- organisations that represent the legal profession such as the Law Council of Australia and Regional Law Societies.

Disclosure overseas

If you practise in a foreign country (or apply to do so) we may send your personal information overseas in response to an inquiry from the relevant authority in that place.

You can access and correct your personal information

Our privacy policy contains information about how you may access your personal information and seek correction of such information; as well as how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how we will deal with such a complaint. Our privacy policy is accessible via a link appearing at the foot of each web page at www.lawsociety.com.au.
