

Denise Doyle
Legal Transformation Lead, Telstra

Denise Doyle is Telstra's Legal Transformation Lead. Denise's background is in process re-engineering and project management of complex strategic transformation initiatives for organisations such as Citibank, NAB, and GE.

As a Six Sigma Master Black Belt, Denise is a passionate business transformation specialist who is extremely focused on delivering greater value to organisations. In her previous role as Head of Finance Transformation at Westpac, she designed and implemented a digital transformation strategy which delivered a framework to deploy robotic process automation technologies across Finance which achieved a 35% uplift in productivity.