

Brett McGrath
Senior Associate
Gadens

Brett McGrath is a Senior Associate in the Family & Relationship Law team at Gadens in Sydney, practicing in family law.

After graduating with a Bachelor of Laws from Western Sydney University, Brett was admitted to practice in 2012 and began his legal career in South Western Sydney, where he was elected the President of the Macarthur Law Society between 2014 to 2018.

From the outset of his career, Brett has been a leader and advocate for access to justice and diversity & inclusion in the legal profession, as well as in the community at-large. He was a member of the Law Society of NSW Diversity & Inclusion Committee, which launched the Charter for the Advancement of Women in the Legal Profession, and contributed to the campaign for Marriage Equality in Australia for the legal recognition of same-sex couples.

In 2018, Brett was elected as a Councillor to the Law Society of New South Wales, and currently serves on the Family Law Committee and Professional Conduct Committees. In addition to his practice at Gadens, Brett lectures at Western Sydney University, coordinating the university's Family Law course.
