Gabriela Christian-Hare, CEO Australian Pro Bono Centre

Gabriela Christian-Hare was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Pro Bono Centre in May 2019. She was formerly Head of Policy and Strategy at the Centre for two years, assisting to lead a range of activities including the preparation of the Centre's 2019 Pro Bono Guide for Government Lawyers.

Previously, Gabriela practised law for over a decade with Clayton Utz in Sydney, Linklaters in London and Tokyo, and as in-house counsel for leading investment bank, Nomura International, in London. She gained not-for-profit sector leadership and on-the-ground policy development experience as Special Advisor to Head of Mission of Mr Tony Blair's Office of the Quartet Representative in Jerusalem and with UNHCR Damascus working on the Iraqi refugee crisis.

Gabriela holds a Master's degree in International Human Rights Law from the University of Oxford, and a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) and Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Sydney.
