

Kieran Pender
Legal Advisor
Legal Policy and Research Unit, International
Bar Association

Kieran is a senior legal advisor with the International Bar Association (IBA) Legal Policy and Research Unit (LPRU), and a Visiting Fellow at The Australian National University (ANU) Centre for International and Public Law. He has led the LPRU's work on diversity and inclusion in legal workplaces, and is the author of Us Too? Bullying and Sexual Harassment in the Legal Profession (2019).

Kieran is a graduate of the ANU, where he was awarded the university medal. His academic work has been published in the Public Law Review, Sydney Law Review and Melbourne University Law Review, and he has spoken at the United Nations, World Bank, European Parliament and OECD. Kieran is also a freelance journalist and has reported from four continents for The Guardian and Monocle.