

About our Presenter

Dr Ashley Tsacalos, Partner, Clayton Utz

Dr Ashley Tsacalos is a dispute resolution lawyer based in Sydney and a leading adviser to government. He is also a leading authority on the government's "model litigant obligations" and on Standing Order 52. He was ranked in a recent Chambers & Partners Asia-Pacific Guide in the Government Category and Ashley has been involved in some of the largest Standing Order 52 requests in recent times including Sydney Stadia (review of 1.1 million documents in 3 weeks), under dosing of chemotherapy patients at St Vincent's Hospital, Bus Contracts (the largest production in NSW history), WestConnex (review of 3 mill documents in 3 weeks) and CBD and South East Light Rail (review of 3 mill documents in 3 weeks) as well as coordinated response across agencies and ministerial offices whilst doing so. Therefore, let me know if you need any advice in relation to the proposed Standing Order 52 or in relation to the process generally as well as in complying with same if it is passed by the Legislative Council.
