

Anna Golovsky
Executive Manager, Agility & Legal Operations
IAG

Anna Golovsky is the Executive Manager for Legal Operations and Agility at IAG. She manages the Agility Legal team dedicated to supporting spikes in the load borne the functional legal teams in insurance advisory, corporate transactions, regulatory investigations and commercial matters. In addition, Anna is responsible for leading and driving change in the legal function through initiatives designed to achieve best practice in the operation of the IAG Legal Team. Previously Anna was the Head of Operations, for the Legal and Governance team at AMP.

Anna's legal career includes almost 20 years in private practice with global firms King & Wood Mallesons in Australia and Clifford Chance in London. Having gained significant commercial legal experience in procurement, technology and outsourcing transactions, Anna moved in-house in 2013 to a senior legal counsel role at AMP.

Anna is co-chair of the Australian Chapter of CLOC (the Corporate Legal Operations Consortium) and has a passion and commitment for driving change and innovation in the delivery of legal services.
