Section C - Declaration

Note: Please make a selection for all of the following declaration points. Should a selection not be made, the renewal form will not progress.

Clarification of renewal requirements can be found in the Information for Accredited Specialists.

Declaration Points

1. I hold a current solicitor¹ practising certificate and propose to renew.

¹ As defined in the Legal Profession Uniform Law Act (NSW)

Note: Interstate practitioners are requested to provide a copy of their Practising Certificate.

Yes No

2. I am a current solicitor member of the Law Society of NSW or a current full solicitor member of an equivalent body in an Australian State or Territory.

Note: Practitioners who move to the Bar after 1 January 2009 cannot renew their Specialist Accreditation.

Note: Interstate practitioners are requested to provide a copy of their membership.

Yes No

3. I am a government solicitor or sole practitioner (as defined in the Legal Profession Uniform Law Act (NSW)) eligible for the discounted annual accreditation fee.

Yes No

4. In the period 1 May 2019 - 30 April 2020, I have maintained substantial involvement in the area(s) of accreditation not less than 25% of normal full-time practice.

Note: Mediation specialists only: In the period 1 May 2019 - 30 April 2020, I have undertaken at least 12.5 hours of mediation as a mediator using the Law Society mediation model (as required to maintain accreditation as a National Mediator).

Yes No¹

5. In the period 1 May 2019 - 30 April 2020, I have undertaken 10 Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points in the area(s) of accreditation.

Note: specialists reaccrediting for the first time:

In the period 1 May 2019 - 30 April 2020 I have undertaken 5 CPD points and attach a completed CPD Report as evidence of compliance.

In these special circumstances, the Law Society understands that solicitors may need to complete more than five of their CPD units through private study of audio/visual material. This means that for the 2019-20 CPD year only, the Law Society will not be enforcing the five-unit cap on private study of audio/visual material as set out in the Legal Profession Uniform Continuing Professional Development (Solicitors) Rules 2015 (CPD rules).

Yes No¹

¹ If you have answered 'No' to points 4 or 5, you will need to request that the Board's exercise its discretion or apply for an extension. Please refer to pages 9 and 10 of the Information for Accredited Specialists document for detailed instructions. This form must be included with any application or request.

6. Since your last renewal have you been subject to adverse action by a regulatory authority?

Note: For the purposes of this renewal, adverse action means:

- A finding by a Court or Tribunal of unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct; or
- A decision by a Regulatory or Law Enforcement Agency/ Authority to refer the specialist to a Court or Tribunal;
- A finding against the specialist by a Regulatory Authority resulting in the imposition of a caution, reprimand or fine; and/or
- Any other finding, allegation or matter involving the specialist which, in the view of the Board, would likely bring the Scheme into disrepute.

Yes No

If you have been the subject of adverse action, you must provide a written statement to the Specialist Accreditation Board providing:

- A statement of the facts; and
- An explanation as to the circumstances; and
- Why, despite the adverse action taken against you, you consider yourself to be fit to hold Specialist Accreditation.

7. In addition, should any of the events referred to in the above occur during the period ending 30 April 2020 you undertake, within twenty-one (21) days of the occurrence of the event, to:

- (i) Notify the Council of the Law Society of the said event; and
- (ii) Provide a written statement explaining why, despite the disclosed event, you consider yourself fit to hold Specialist Accreditation.

8. I authorise the Professional Standards Department of the Law Society of NSW (or the equivalent body in an Australian state or Territory) and the Legal Services Commissioner to advise the Specialist Accreditation Board and release to the Specialist Accreditation Board any information in relation to any referral to a Disciplinary Body or any adverse conduct finding that may be made against me at any time.

9. I also authorise Specialist Accreditation to contact me with information about upcoming Specialist CPD events and to publish my contact information on the Law Society website as an Accredited Specialist.

I declare that the contents of this application are true and correct.
