

Gladys Berejiklian
Premier of NSW

MEDIA STATEMENT

Friday, 8 May 2020

NATIONAL CABINET

NSW welcomes the framework for the further easing of restrictions endorsed today by the National Cabinet.

This framework provides a clear pathway to what citizens can look forward to in coming months.

The NSW Government has already eased a number of restrictions listed under the first stage of the plan.

As I stated earlier this week – there will be no further change to restrictions in NSW this week.

NSW will continue to keep our citizens updated on our path forward.