

Emma Heuston
Founder and Principal Lawyer
The Remote Expert

Emma Heuston is a lawyer, author and virtual law firm owner. She is based in Ballina in regional New South Wales and has clients all round the country, helping women with online businesses. Emma also wrote "The Tracksuit Economy: how to work from home productively and effectively" in 2018. Since then Emma won the 2018 Lawyers Weekly Women in Law Thought Leader of the Year Award and has developed a name on the speaking circuit and in the thought leader space around flexible and remote work. This year marks Emma's 20th year in practice.