

Wednesday 26 August 2020

What have we learnt that can improve the use of technology for court and tribunal hearings?

Time	Synopsis	Speakers
5.30pm – 7.00pm	The advantages/disadvantages of technological responses to the current restrictions; including cyber security issues.	Official Conference Series Welcome – The Honourable Justice Steven Rares, President, Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration Chair – Dr Brenda McGivern, Member, State Administrative Tribunal The Honourable Justice Angus Stewart, Federal Court of Australia The Honourable Justice Janine Pritchard, President, State Administrative Tribunal, Judge, Supreme Court of Western Australia His Honour Judge Warwick Hunt, District Court of New South Wales Richard Wilson SC, Deputy Senior Public Defender, Public Defenders Chambers

Wednesday 2 September 2020

The different sociological and neurological impacts of virtual or online courts

5.30pm – 7.00pm	With a focus on users including lawyers litigants and judicial – officers and how to deal with litigants who quarrel in a virtual courtroom setting.	Chair – Her Honour Magistrate Jelena Popovic, Magistrates Court of Victoria Professor Ian Lambie, Clinical Psychologist, School of Psychology, University of Auckland Brett McGrath, Registrar, Family Court of Australia & Federal Circuit Court of Australia
-----------------	--	--

Wednesday 16 September 2020

Moving court hearings online: The benefits, challenges and lessons learnt from those that provide and support the technology

5.30pm – 7.00pm	Hear insights from those providing and implementing technology to enable virtual hearings. Our panel draws on a cross section of experts working daily to ensure that the virtual courtroom can deliver the functionality, security and ease of use essential to the success of this new medium.	Chair - Her Honour Magistrate Jelena Popovic, Magistrates Court of Victoria Craig Candy, Chief Technology Officer, Ministry of Justice New Zealand Jessica Der Matossian, Registrar, Digital Practice, Federal Court of Australia Craig Reilly, Chief Information Officer - Corporate Services, Federal Court of Australia Tim Fawcett, Director of Government Affairs, CISCO Australia Brett Lightfoot, National Director for Industry - Public Sector, Microsoft Australia
-----------------	--	--

Wednesday 23 September 2020

The impact of current restrictions on the principle of open justice and access to the courts and tribunals

5.30pm – 7.00pm	How have restrictions changed the community view of judging and justice and have we implemented the best protocols?	Chair - Kate Davenport QC, Barrister, Bankside Chambers The Honourable Justice Mark Cooper, New Zealand Court of Appeal Tony McAvoy SC, Barrister, Fredrick Jordan Chambers Dr Mathew Collins AM QC, Barrister, List A Barristers Tiana Epati, President, New Zealand Law Society
-----------------	---	---

Wednesday 30 September 2020

The future for the administration of justice

5.30pm – 7.00pm	How best to manage an easing of restrictions – is a return to the past practices feasible or desirable? What lessons have we learnt?	Chair and Official Conference Series Close – The Right Honourable Dame Helen Winkelmann, Chief Justice, Supreme Court of New Zealand The Honourable Chief Justice James Allsop AO, Federal Court of Australia His Honour Judge Heemi Taumaunu, Chief Judge, District Court of New Zealand
-----------------	--	---