

Tony Cahill

Tony Cahill was admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales in 1981 and practised extensively in conveyancing, probate and commercial law. In July 2002 he commenced a 'sabbatical' from private legal practice to concentrate on legal education and writing.

He has been involved in redrafts of the Contract for Sale and Purchase of Land since the 1992 edition, and the Contract for the Sale of Business since the 2000 edition.

He currently serves on the Law Society's Property Law and Environmental Planning and Development Committees.