

Timothy Stutt
Senior Associate
Herbert Smith Freehills

Tim specialises in governance and has over a decade's experience helping large corporations with ESG matters, particularly with respect to market disclosure, risk management and shareholder engagement/activism.

Tim routinely delivers cross-practice solutions for clients as the Australian lead for Herbert Smith Freehills' ESG, Sustainability and Responsible Business practice, is a senior member of the firm's Head Office Advisory Team and a member of the firm's global Business and Human Rights practice. Tim was a Japanese Ministry of Education scholar and received his Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) at Hitotsubashi University in Tokyo, and has previous experience working as a financial analyst for a San Francisco Bay Area-based investment manager.
