

Kristiina Bedford
Registered Psychologist and Organisational Consultant
PeopleSense by Altius

Kristiina has extensive experience conducting research, consultancy and training with a wide range of industry partners, including government, national and multinational corporations and not-for-profit organisations.

She is also proficient in the adult counselling space, working with clients with a range of clinical issues. Kristiina is committed to using evidence-based approaches and client centred services to formulate innovative solutions for complex organisational challenges.

Kristiina is a registered psychologist with a Masters in Industrial and Organisational Psychology.