

Charlotte Dubois

Aboriginal Legal Service

Charlotte is a criminal lawyer at the Aboriginal Legal Service. Whilst she has only been admitted for 6 months and is still a baby lawyer she has already learnt so many things (such as how to say "May it please the court" without stumbling/crying). Charlotte loves the law, animal memes, dancing and running LEPRAs against NSW Police (definitely not in that order!).