

Jasmine Zamprogno

Norton Rose Fulbright

Having lost two consecutive Queensland Golden Gavel titles, Jasmine has moved to Sydney with the sole aim of taking out the title as she knows New South Wales people have no sense of humour.

Armed with an Interstate Practising Certificate, a High Distinction in Contract Law and a XXXX, Jasmine looks forward to being welcomed by her new colleagues before promptly crushing them beneath her heels (Novo, bought on sale but could pass for new season Steve Madden in a certain poor office light).
