

District Court
of New South Wales

Regional and Circuit Court Sittings COVID-19 Update

12 July 2021

All court participants who travel from Greater Sydney, including the Central Coast, Blue Mountains, Wollongong and Shell Harbour (the Greater Sydney area) to a sittings of the District Court outside the Greater Sydney area, must have a negative COVID-19 test result before travelling.

All court participants must obtain a COVID-19 test within sufficient time to enable them to appear on the date set for hearing and/or to comply with bail obligations.

Lawyers must advise their clients of these requirements.

Where possible, arrangements should be made with the resident Judge or circuit Judge for participants in the Greater Sydney area to appear remotely.

Court participants include Judges, associates, lawyers, witnesses and persons on bail or with bail dispensed with.