

Ronan MacSweeney

Deputy General Counsel - Construction & Projects, Legal Branch Transport for New South Wales

Ronan is a councillor of the Law Society of NSW and is the Chair of the Law Society's Government Solicitors Committee. He is also Chair of the Law Society of NSW's Diversity and Inclusion Committee. Ronan practices as a Government solicitor at Transport for NSW where he is Deputy General Counsel – Construction and Projects. Ronan is a specialist construction and projects lawyer practised in dealing with a broad cross-section of projects in the property and construction industries including public private partnerships and disputes.

Admitted to practice in New South Wales and Ireland

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES