

Tessa van Duyn

CEO and Practice Leader, Moores

Tessa is a purposeful leader and highly regarded human rights and public law expert. She has more than 15 years of experience providing expert legal and strategic solutions.

Previously manager of the legal team at the Victorian Equal Opportunity & Human Rights Commission, Tessa joined Moores to continue her commitment to making a positive impact in the community. As CEO, Tessa is an enabler. She believes human capital is the firm's greatest asset and it is her role to empower people to achieve their best by embodying Moores' values, working with purpose, delighting its clients and delivering results.

Tessa sits on a Not-For-Profit board in her local community, is Vice-President of her children's primary School Council and an Independent Member of the Football Victoria Tribunal.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES