

Tomoyuki Hachigo

Co-Founder, Sprintlaw

Tomoyuki is one of the co-founders at Sprintlaw, an online law firm delivering fixed-fee legal services to businesses. He started his early career at Clayton Utz as a corporate M&A lawyer.

In recent years, Sprintlaw and Tomoyuki have won a number of awards, including the Deloitte APAC Technology Fast 500 Awards in 2021, Lawyers Weekly 30 Under 30 Awards in 2020, Australian Law Awards NewLaw Firm of the Year in 2020, Sydney Young Entrepreneur Awards in 2020 & 2019, and Australian Law Awards Innovator of the Year in 2019.

Sprintlaw was founded in 2017 with a mission to make legal services easier, faster and more affordable for startups and small businesses. Since then, Sprintlaw has helped thousands of businesses in Australia and have recently expanded to the UK.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES