

District Court
of New South Wales

COVID-19 Update – 5 August 2021

Newcastle District Court

In view of the Public Health Order announced today for the Hunter region, the commencement of new jury trials in the Newcastle District Court (the Court) will be temporarily suspended from Thursday 5 August 2021 until 12.01am Friday 13 August 2021.

The current jury trial will continue. Other than the jury trial, there will be no personal appearances in the Court during the above period.