After over 10 years in-house Cara has established a law firm based in northern NSW that serves regional business Australia wide.

Cara moved to the Clarence Valley in 2017 and started Twine Business Lawyers in 2019. Twine is dedicating to creating legal solutions for regional business owners.

Prior to Twine, Cara was APAC General Counsel for a US MNC, and prior to that held a regional role in a listed Japanese MNC. In both roles she reimagined the purpose and role of the legal department, and is doing the same again for regional law firms.
