

Verity White

Founder + Chief Contract Enthusiast, Checklist Legal, Honorary Senior Fellow, University of Melbourne

Verity White is the founder and Chief Contract Enthusiast at Checklist Legal. Verity is an experienced commercial lawyer with a passion for simplifying legal information and expertise in re-designing contracts for automation, readability, and usability.

Her work simplifying contracts has saved thousands of headaches for businesses and lawyers, and one of her B2B contract design projects was a Finalist in the Legal category of the 2019 Clear Communication Awards.

Verity led Checklist Legal to be the first Australian law firm to receive the WriteMark plain language certification and the first law firm to present at Melbourne Design Week.

Verity is also an Honorary Senior Fellow at the University of Melbourne where she is teaching Contract Design for Automation.

Connect with Verity on LinkedIn and Instagram or visit Checklist Legal for more details on her current projects.
