THE FUTURE OF LAW

12:30pm-1:30pm

Emerging Legal Markets: Understanding and reaching the latent market for legal services

Part 2: New markets need new offerings

In part two, 'New markets need new offerings', we think about how your new offering might look. Liz Harris will look at the new business structures and pricing that firms need. Tania Sourdin will take us through the apps, technology and tools to help us practice more efficiently, effectively and economically. Finally, Carly Stebbing and Tomoyuki Hachigo will share with us what this journey looks like in real life.

About Carly Stebbing

Carly Stebbing is a workplace rights advocate and Founder of Resolution123. Resolution123 uses technology and flexible work to deliver employment law services to employees in a fast, simple and affordable way. Carly has over 15 years experience in all aspects of employment law, having worked for employer associations, large and boutique law firms and volunteering at community legal centres. In recent years, Resolution123 and Carly have won a number of awards, including UTS Startups Most Promising Social Benefit and Fastest Growing Startup and the Lawyers Weekly Women in Law Innovator of the Year. Resolution123 was founded in 2017 and since then has helped thousands of Australian employees resolve disputes at work.
