

Katrina Johnson

General Counsel, WiseTech Global

THE PROFESSION

11:45am-12:45pm

Professional Competency in the Current Climate: Rules & Ethics

Part 3: Remote supervision

Supervision is an important part of legal practice at all levels, and for newly admitted lawyers is a critical link between formal legal education and independent practice. Remote supervision has been thrust into the mainstream by the COVID-19 pandemic. This presents a number of challenges but also the opportunity for a systematic and structured approach to supervision. This session will explore the supervisory relationship, using technology to stay connected, well-being and risk management.

About Katrina Johnson

Katrina joined WiseTech Global (ASX:WTC) in March 2020 as General Counsel, where she leads the global Legal and Corporate Governance teams and is a member of the Senior Leadership Team.

WiseTech is an ASX100 technology company providing global software solutions to over 18,000 of the world's logistics companies across more than 165 countries. Based in Sydney, Katrina and her teams support colleagues located in over 50 countries worldwide, across a wide range of legal, regulatory and governance areas.

Prior to joining WiseTech, Katrina spent almost 5 years at Uber, where she was the first in-house lawyer for Australia & New Zealand and later became Associate General Counsel & Head of Legal for the Asia Pacific region.

Before that, Katrina spent almost 12 years with the eBay & PayPal group of companies in Asia Pacific and the US where she held various leadership roles in legal services, government relations, business ethics and trust & safety.

Katrina is listed in the Legal 500's GC Powerlist Australia and is a member of the Association of Corporate Counsel's GC100. She was named one of Asia Pacific's Most Innovative General Counsel by the UK's Financial Times in 2019, as well as General Counsel of the Year at the 2017 Australian Law Awards and 2017 Australian Women in Law Awards.
