

Alison Howarth

Clinical Engagement Manager, 1800RESPECT

Alison has a significant work history in both government and corporate clinical settings in the sector of trauma support including: development and implementation of policy, protocols and training for counselling programs, clinical governance and service improvement, social justice advocacy and evidence based policy and reforms.

In addition, Alison is a highly experienced trainer with a clinical practice background spanning over two decades in counselling and support for people impacted by DFSV and vicarious trauma.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES