

Thought Leadership - Getting to 'net zero': The role of the legal profession in promoting a just transition

Monday 29 November 2021 – 4.30pm – 6.00pm

Rachel Walmsley

Head of Policy & Law Reform, Environmental Defenders Office

Rachel Walmsley is the Head of Policy & Law Reform at Environmental Defenders Office, with over 18 years experience working on public interest environmental law and policy in Australia. She has written extensive law reform submissions and discussion papers and advised governments and NGOs on a range of environmental law issues, including planning, climate, natural resource management and biodiversity laws. Rachel guest-lectures in environmental law, is a legal advisor to the Wentworth Group of Concerned Scientists and the Places You Love alliance on national law reform, and was a member of the Australian Panel of Experts in Environmental Law (APEEL).

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES