

Alessandra Pettit

Associate, Stacks Goudkamp

Alessandra Pettit was born in the Hunter Valley, NSW where she attended her local Steiner school. After graduating from university, she moved to Canberra and has since worked exclusively in child sexual abuse litigation, having worked at one of Australia's leading specialist child abuse law firms.

Alessandra has acted for hundreds of individuals from all walks of life and has dedicated her career to assist survivors of sexual and physical abuse in navigating their cases through civil courts to achieve outstanding results. Alessandra has been involved in multiple cases against various institutions, religious organisations and State and Commonwealth government departments.

Alessandra's hard work and dedication to her clients has seen her achieve one of Australia's highest awards of damages for a survivor of historical institutional abuse.

Alessandra has recently joined the team at Stacks Goudkamp in Sydney.
