

Kerrie Lalich

Chief Executive Officer, Lawcover

Kerrie was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Lawcover in September 2020. Kerrie joined Lawcover in February 2013 as Chief Operations Officer with primary responsibility for leading Professional Services – Claims, Insurance Services, Practice Support Services and later the ICT team.

Kerrie was admitted as a solicitor in NSW in 1996 and her career has spanned several Sydney law firms. She specialised in personal injury, professional indemnity and insurance litigation.

In 2001, Kerrie moved from legal practice to the insurance industry, focusing on public liability, personal injury/catastrophic claims, professional indemnity and medical indemnity. Her insurance career has included time with AMP/GIO, Suncorp, QBE and MDA National.

Kerrie's broad expertise includes leading diverse teams delivering professional indemnity, claims and risk management education services with a key focus on successful outcomes, business rigour and client value.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES