Elliot Smith

Partner, Banton group

Elliott has a breadth of experience running complex commercial, restructuring and insolvency disputes in Australia and Asia Pacific. He is also an international arbitration expert having practised throughout Asia, the Middle East and Europe.

He has expertise in both plaintiff and defendant litigation work in Australia, with a focus on misleading and deceptive conduct claims, breaches of the Corporations Act, multi-jurisdictional international arbitration and cross border trade disputes. He has spent a significant amount of time in-house at both a big 4 bank and a big 4 accounting firm and has an impressive understanding of his client's commercial imperatives.

Key clients include a broad range of public and private clients including banks, insolvency practitioners, directors, auditors, and private equity firms.

Elliott's recent cases include a number of significant recovery actions in some of the largest insolvencies in Australia. He regularly speaks at conferences and industry seminars and was listed as a 'Rising Star' in the 2017 Asia Pacific Legal 500.

Recently in the 2021 Asia Pacific Legal 500 Guide it was noted that, "Elliott Smith has a top-notch working knowledge of his areas of specialty, together with excellent organisational skills."
