

In-House Corporate Lawyers Forum: Hear from the Regulators

Wednesday 10 August 2022 – 7.30am – 9.30am

Chris Savundra General Counsel, ASIC

Chris is ASIC's General Counsel and leads the Chief Legal Office, the primary source of legal advice to the Commission and legal services across ASIC. Chris and his team provide advice and guidance on complex regulatory matters, law reform and new areas of regulatory responsibility for ASIC, conducting ASIC's litigation and advising on enforcement matters.

Previously, Chris was the Senior Executive Leader for the Market Enforcement team and was responsible for the carriage of a number of ASIC's major market misconduct matters. Before joining ASIC, he worked in the litigation group of Allens Arthur Robinson (now Allens) in Perth and Herbert Smith in London.

Chris has more than 20 years legal, regulatory and enforcement experience and holds law degrees from the University of Oxford and the University of Western Australia. He also holds a Bachelor of Commerce

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES