

Thought Leadership Series: Protecting human rights in NSW – Is the Queensland model the way forward?

Monday 25 July 2022 – 4.00pm – 6.00pm

Scott McDougall Queensland Human Rights Commissioner

Scott McDougall commenced as Commissioner of the Anti-Discrimination Commission Queensland on 8 October 2018. Immediately prior to his appointment he was the Director and Principal Solicitor at Caxton Legal Centre in Brisbane where he contributed to the successful campaign to introduce a Human Rights Act in Queensland.

Since 1 January 2020, as Queensland's inaugural Human Rights Commissioner, Mr McDougall has overseen the implementation of a dedicated human rights complaints function with the objective of building a strong human rights culture within Queensland's public sector.

He holds a Bachelor of Laws from the Queensland University of Technology.
