

FLIP Buzzwords: Metaverse

Wednesday 31 August 2022 – 3.30pm – 5.00pm

Tony Song

Research fellow, Law Society of NSW Future of Law and Innovation in the Profession (FLIP) research stream, School of Private and Commercial Law, UNSW Law and Justice

Tony is a Research Fellow for the NSW Law Society's Future of Law and Innovation (FLIP) research stream at UNSW Law & Justice. Tony has been working with the FLIP Stream for 3 years, starting from a research assistant to now a research fellow. Previously, Tony has worked in various legal centres, law firms (from boutique to BigLaw), courts (as a court monitor) and start-ups. Tony's research interest covers the impact of technology on the legal profession and society, with a particular focus on artificial intelligence, online courts, blockchain, web3 and the metaverse. Tony also has expertise in trading financial markets and technical analysis with certificates in the Wyckoff methodology.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES