

Business Law

Thursday 17 August 2023

Session 3 – 12.00pm – 12.45pm

The role of equity in commercial disputes

Equitable doctrines and remedies are an essential part of commercial litigation. Join presenter Fiona McNeil as she examines the interrelationship between equity and statute and how this plays out in the resolution of commercial disputes. The session will look at these doctrines in practice through recent equity decisions that all business law practitioners need to know.

Meet the speaker

Fiona McNeil, Barrister, 5 Selborne Chambers

Fiona McNeil is a barrister at 5 Selborne Chambers. Fiona was admitted to legal practice in 1998 and was called to the Bar in 2015. Before coming to the Bar, Fiona was General Counsel of Standards Australia Limited. In private practice, Fiona was a Senior Associate at Minter Ellison. Fiona's practice includes advising and appearing in a range of commercial matters.