

Business Law

Thursday 17 August 2023

Meet the Chair

John Graves, Principal, Finn Roache Lawyers

John Graves is a commercial lawyer providing a broad range of corporate and commercial legal services to clients across a diverse range of industries such as information technology, accountancy, property and development, transport and tourism industries, and a number of others. He has extensive experience in structuring, funding and restructuring of businesses and other entities, acquisition and sale of businesses and companies, intellectual property law, competition and consumer law, property law and building, construction and development law. John is an Accredited Specialist of the Law Society of New South Wales in Business Law and in Property Law, and is currently the Chairman of the Law Society's Specialist Accreditation Advisory Committee for Business Law. John was previously the principal of Bradfield & Scott Lawyers of Hunter Street, Sydney, the Managing Partner of Ebsworth & Ebsworth and before that of Parish Patience.