Wednesday 30 August 2023 – 3.30pm – 5.30pm

Tomoyuki Hachigo Co-Founder Sprintlaw

Tomoyuki is one of the co-founders at Sprintlaw, an online law firm delivering fixed-fee legal services to businesses. He started his early career at Clayton Utz as a corporate M&A lawyer.

Founded in 2017 with a mission to make legal services easier, faster and more affordable for startups and small businesses, Sprintlaw has helped thousands of businesses in Australia and have recently expanded to the UK and New Zealand. Sprintlaw is Australia's fastest growing legal firm, and was the top ranked legal business in the Financial Times APAC High Growth Companies List (2022, 2023), the AFR Fast Starters (2021) and the Deloitte's

APAC Technology Fast 500 (2021).

The firm has won many industry awards, including NewLaw Firm of the Year (2020, 2021) and Innovator of the Year (2019, 2022) at the Australian Law Awards, Australasian Lawyer's Employer of Choice Award (2020, 2021, 2022) and the LexisNexis Legal Innovation Index Award (2018).
