

INSTRUMENT OF DELEGATION

Preamble: the role of the Council of the Law Society of New South Wales under the *Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW)

The Council of the Law Society of New South Wales (Law Society Council) is a designated local regulatory authority under the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) (Uniform Law).

A designated local regulatory authority means “a person or body specified or described in a law of this jurisdiction for the purposes of a provision, or part of a provision, of this Law in which the term is used” (s6 of the Uniform Law).

The Uniform Law confers powers and functions on designated local regulatory authorities.

Section 11 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act (Application Act) sets out the provisions under the Uniform Law for which the Law Society Council is the designated local regulatory authority such as Chapters 2 to 4 and 6 to 8.

The Council of the Bar Association of New South Wales and the New South Wales Legal Services Commissioner (NSW Commissioner) are also prescribed as designated local regulatory authorities under the Uniform Law.

The NSW Commissioner is the designated local regulatory authority in relation to complaints about lawyers (Chapter 5) and complaint investigations (Chapter 7). The NSW Commissioner has delegated functions to the Law Society Council including by an Instrument of Delegation and Direction dated 30 September 2020.

Sections 28 and 32 of the Application Act allow the Law Society Council to delegate its powers and functions including:

- i. functions under Chapter 5 of the Uniform Law as delegated by the NSW Commissioner to the Law Society Council under s 28 of the Application Act;
- ii. functions under the Uniform Law (other than under Chapter 5), or within the instruments made under that Act, in respect of which the Law Society Council is the designated local regulatory authority;
- iii. functions under the Application Act, or within the instruments made under that Act, in respect of which the Law Society Council is the designated local regulatory authority.

The Law Society Council may also delegate functions relating to the Legal Practitioners Fidelity Fund under s 119 of the Application Act.

INSTRUMENT OF DELEGATION AND GUIDELINE UNDER SECTION 408 OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION UNIFORM LAW (NSW)

1. In this instrument:
  - (i) Terms used in the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) (Uniform Law) or in the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (NSW) (Application Act) or any subordinate instrument have the same meaning in this instrument as they have in those laws.
  - (ii) The Fidelity Fund Management Committee means the Management Committee of the Legal Practitioners Fidelity Fund as constituted from time to time.
  - (iii) Provisions means sections, rules, regulations or clauses.

2. Pursuant to ss 32 and 119(1) of the Application Act and s 406 of the Uniform Law, the Council of the Law Society of New South Wales (Law Society Council) hereby delegates the powers and functions in the provisions specified in Column A and described in Column B of Schedule 1 to:
  - (i) the Committee or Committees of the Law Society Council established pursuant to a resolution of the Council, or pursuant to a Constitution in respect of that Committee adopted by resolution of the Law Society Council, as specified in Column C; and/or
  - (ii) the person or persons for the time being holding, acting in, or performing the duties of the position or positions specified in Column C, being employees of the Law Society of New South Wales.

Note: Headings used in Schedule 1 do not form part of the delegations

3. For the purposes of this instrument, a delegation to the Director Legal Regulation may also be exercised by the Deputy Chief Executive Officer, provided the function is exercised on or before 31 December 2023.
4. For the avoidance of doubt, and unless otherwise stated, the powers and functions delegated are all powers and functions exercisable under each provision specified in Column A.
5. The descriptions in Column B do not limit the scope of the powers and functions delegated in Column A.
6. Pursuant to s 408 of the Uniform Law, the Law Society Council may issue guidelines to its delegates about the exercise of functions under the Uniform Law or the Legal Profession Uniform Rules made under Part 9.2 of the Uniform Law. In the exercise of that power, the Law Society Council hereby issues the guidelines in Column D to the delegates specified in Column C, in respect of the exercise of any power or function specified in Column A.
7. Claims against the Legal Practitioners Fidelity Fund are to be determined by the Management Committee of the Legal Practitioners Fidelity Fund independently, at arm's length from the legal profession as required by s 240(1) of the Uniform Law.
8. This instrument does not affect the validity of any past act or past exercise of powers or functions exercised or performed in accordance with previous delegations or directions.
