

SBS Inclusion Program

The Law Society of NSW has an ongoing commitment to advocating for diverse workplaces that better represent the community we serve. As such, we are pleased to provide members with affordable access to the SBS Inclusion Program via LawInform.

The SBS Inclusion Program is a large and growing online library of courses, films, activities, and resources designed to assist individuals and organisations to build more diverse and effective teams and provide better service to diverse clients.

Key Features

- More than 160 short films – interview, animation and other
- Real stories, research and best practice made accessible to all
- Large and growing library of conversation starters and activities
- Supported by large online databases – the Cultural Atlas and the SBS Census Explorer
- Built in collaboration with leading diversity organisations including ACON Pride in Diversity, Australian Network on Disability, Benevolent Society, Carbon Creative, Champions of Change Coalition, Diversity Council Australia, Every Age Counts, Randstad Risesmart, University of Queensland and The Wollotuka Institute.

Course topics include

Core Inclusion skills and Unconscious Bias	Cultural Diversity
Disability	Discrimination, Harassment, Bullying
Generational Diversity	Gender Equity
First Nations	LGBTIQ+
Respect at Work	Psychosocial Hazards

How to access it

- View the Program and register for courses on LawInform.
- Access purchased courses by using your LawID to log into your LawInform account. Click on My Courses and then select the course you want to complete.
- Courses can be completed at your own pace. Your progress will be saved.
- Once you complete a course, it will be recorded in your LawInform CPD tracker.