Will Burkitt

Executive Leader, Care & Living with Mercer and Partner, Mercer

Will Burkitt is the leader of Care & Living with Mercer and a Partner within Mercer's Australian business. Care & Living with Mercer is a unique national service that supports Australians and their families to make better, faster aged care decisions. A first-of-its-kind service in Australia, it is currently made available through leading employers, financial advisers and super funds as a benefit.

Prior to joining Mercer in January 2018, Will has held several leadership roles for leading financial services and wealth management institutions in Sydney, Hong Kong and London, advising clients on the full range of wealth products and strategies to achieve their goals in retirement. He also has experience as a company director.
