

GUIDE TO LIVING AND WORKING IN THE ORANA REGION

We have prepared this guide to help you settle into life as a young lawyer in the Orana Region. There are handy hints throughout this guide to make the transition into the profession in our region easier.

Throughout this guide we have included tips from other young lawyers in the Orana Law Society, such as where to find the best coffee, our most trusted dry cleaner, the best place to have a beer after work and the best kept local secrets. The information in this guide should have you feeling like a local in no time.

I am the President of the Orana Regional Law Society. I work in a local practice and can be contacted to help with any questions, concerns or issues you may have. I hope you enjoy your time living and working as a young lawyer in the Orana region.

WORKING IN ORANA

NSW YOUNG LAWYERS

NSW Young Lawyers is a Committee of the Law Society of New South Wales that represents the Law Society and its members on issues and opportunities arising in relation to young lawyers i.e. those within their first five years of practice or up to 36 years of age.

Through its 15 sub-committees, each dedicated to a substantive area of law, NSW Young Lawyers supports practitioners in their professional and career development by giving them the opportunity to expand their knowledge, advance their career and contribute to the profession and community.

To be eligible to receive NSW Young Lawyers communications, you must be:

- a member of the Law Society; and
- under 36 years of age; or
- within the first five years of your admission to practice in NSW.

YOUNG LAWYERS EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

NSW Young Lawyers is led by the Executive Council. The Executive Council comprises the Leadership Team and up to 10 Executive Councillors. The 2024 NSW Young Lawyers Leadership Team and Executive Council are:

President	Taylah Spirovski ✉
Vice President	Timothy Roberts ✉
Submissions Lead	Sarah Ienna ✉
Secretary	Seth Harlen ✉
Immediate Past President	Olivia Irvine ✉
Executive Council	Elena (Yiyi) Su	Marie Russo
	William Glowery	Jodie Sheen
	Milorad Kuga	Sarah Yigit
	William Noonan	Amy Farrugia

Contact NSW Young Lawyers
young.lawyers@lawsociety.com.au

Each year, NSW Young Lawyers nominates a well regarded member of the legal profession to be their Patron for the coming 12 months.

The function of the Patron is to champion the rights and interests and further the development of NSW Young Lawyers. The role includes attending and performing official tasks throughout the year including hosting events, speaking at our assemblies and giving the State of the Profession Address

NSW Young Lawyers also supports a charity each year. Money raised from various activities is donated to the chosen charity.

Attendees at the NSW Young Lawyers Mid-Year Assembly vote on the Patron and Charity for the following year.

The current Patron and Charity are:

2024 Patron The Honourable Magistrate Imad Abdul-Karim, Liverpool Local Court

2024 Charity The Mirabel Foundation

NSW YOUNG LAWYERS SUB-COMMITTEES

NSW Young Lawyers has 15 sub-committees each dedicated to a substantive area of law including SCLSS (the Special Committee of Law Student Societies). Subscribing to a sub-committee is a great way to get involved and meet other early career lawyers.

The sub-committees' activities range from discussing legal developments, preparing submissions to government, producing practice guides, social gatherings, public forums and pro bono activities.

Most sub-committees meet monthly and offer video-conferencing facilities to allow individuals outside of Sydney to attend.

Check out the list of the current sub-committees– you can click on the button for the sub-committee to go to their homepage for further information.

You can also view upcoming NSW Young Lawyers events on our events page.

GETTING INVOLVED WITH THE YOUNG LAWYERS OF THE ORANA LAW SOCIETY

All lawyers in their first five years of practice or under 36 years of age are eligible to receive NSW Young Lawyers communications.

If you reside in the Orana region you are considered a young lawyer of the Orana Law Society.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

There are a number of ways to take an active role in NSW Young Lawyers. Young lawyers in the Orana region hold various networking events throughout the year. These are a great opportunity to meet other young lawyers in the region. If you have any suggestions for an event please contact the Young Lawyers Representative.

You can also join the "Orana Young Lawyers" Facebook group where the majority of events and information will be distributed also.

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Lawyers are required to complete Continuing Professional Development (CPD) courses each year.

The CPD year runs from 1 April to 31 March the following year. You are required to complete 10 CPD units during the year.

You must have one of the following every year:

1. Ethics and Professional Responsibility;
2. Practice Management and Business Skills;
3. Professional Skills; and
4. Substantive Law.

The Orana Law Society hosts CPD events throughout the year. If you are unsure when the next CPD event is being held, contact the Orana Law Society CPD Coordinator or the Young Lawyers Representative.

The Orana Law Society is always interested in receiving feedback from members for future CPD topics. If there are any topics you would like covered, please email the Young Lawyers Representative.

TIPS FROM OTHER YOUNG LAWYERS

We asked a number of young lawyers from the Orana Regional Law Society what their tips are for other young lawyers moving to the Dubbo Region.

Q. What is the one thing you wished you knew before moving to Dubbo?

- A.
- There will be 2 degrees of separation from everyone; I didn't realise how welcoming everyone was in all aspects of the town.
 - The summers get very hot and winter mornings can be very cold!
 - There was a mouse plague, so I'd keep your house clean!
 - The locals think anything "over the bridge" is too far away.

Q. What is the best kept local secret?

- A.
- The cinnamon cruffins from Village Bakehouse – unreal!
 - You can get into the Old Dubbo Gaol for free if you have a Dubbo postcode on your licence!
 - There is great Friday night live music and happy hour at the Old Bank (and Muso's night every Tuesday)
 - Narromine Soul Food Depot for brunch or cheeky coffee on your way to Court out West
 - Friday afternoon and Sunday sessions at the South Dubbo Tavern. Get a locals pass for the zoo – only $38 annually and you can go back as many times as you like!

Q. Who do you trust to clean your suit?

- A.
- Civic Dry Cleaners on Talbragar Street.
 - Macquarie Dry Cleaners on Tamworth Street.

Q. What is your advice for young lawyers who have recently moved to Dubbo?

- A.
- Get involved! Try and go along to as many law society events as possible – it's a great way to meet your colleagues. Join the Young Lawyers Facebook group to find out when they are meeting up next.
 - Get involved in the local community.
 - Come play in the YL netball team (sorry, no boys allowed)
 - There is a great young crowd in Dubbo, plenty of opportunity to engage with others through sport or other endeavors!
 - Ask questions and say hello to other Solicitors. The legal profession in Dubbo is friendly, helpful and supportive.

Q. What exciting road trips would you recommend in the Orana region?

- A.
- The Warrumbungles for a scenic hike.
 - Head to Mudgee – it's a great little town with heaps to see and do. Plenty of nice wineries and restaurants for all occasions.
 - A trip to Warren – friendly locals and a shipping container courthouse!
 - For a weekend away, you can't beat Lightning Ridge – bore baths, art galleries & mine tours – so quirky and fun!

Q. Where is the best place for...

Coffee

- Black Tambourine, Brisbane St
- Press (cold press style coffee), Bultje St
- The Local, Brisbane St
- Fast Lane Drive Thru Coffee
- Dahub, Brisbane St
- Cacao House, Brisbane St

A beer after work

- Pastoral Hotel, Talbragar St
- The Commercial Hotel, Brisbane St
- Old Bank, Macquarie St
- Monkey Bar, Wingewarra St
- South Dubbo Tavern

A meal

- Royal Indian Restobar, Bultje St
- Dahub, Brisbane St
- Down the Lane, Macquarie St
- Village Bakehouse, Darling St (excellent pies!)
- Church Street Café, Church St
- Press, Bultje St
- Amaroo, Macquarie St (specifically for $6.50 schnitty)
- Vietnamese House, Macquarie St
