

In-House Corporate Lawyers Forum:
Neurotechnology and the Workplace – Promise and Peril
Tuesday 6 May 2025 5.30pm – 7.00pm

Lorraine Finlay
Human Rights Commissioner,
Australian Human Rights Commission

Lorraine Finlay is the Human Rights Commissioner at the Australian Human Rights Commission. In this role Lorraine leads the work of the Commission in areas including modern slavery, asylum seekers and refugees, business & human rights, and technology.

Prior to joining the Commission, Lorraine has worked as a lawyer and academic specializing in human rights and public law. She holds a dual Masters in Law from New York University and the National University of Singapore, where she studied as a Singapura Scholar. Her past roles have included working as the Senior Human Trafficking Specialist with the Australian Mission to ASEAN, an academic at Murdoch University, and a State Prosecutor with the WA DPP.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES