

Cicely Sylow

Principal Solicitor, Pivot Law

Cicely is an experienced director and senior legal advisor with leadership and organisational experience in private companies and international law firms. She has extensive experience in leadership, governance, strategic advice, complex commercial transactions, acquisitions, construction, developments, stakeholder engagement (including government), asset development, sustainability, and organisational performance. Throughout her career, Cicely has been recognised for her ability to translate complex legal principles into practical strategies for clients navigating growth in a competitive landscape.

Cicely is the Principal Solicitor of Pivot Law and advises a small number of clients on strategic matters. In her “spare” time, Cicely is passionate about delivering growth and resilience for regional NSW communities.

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES