SPECIALIST ACCREDITATION CONFERENCE 2025

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES

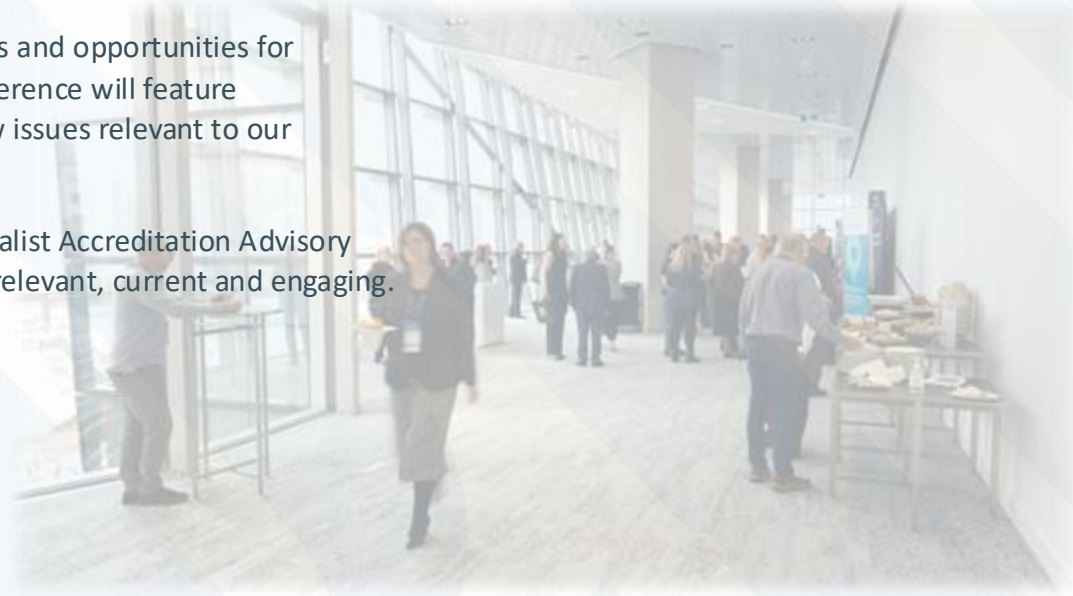

SPECIALIST ACCREDITATION
THE LAW SOCIETY OF NSW

The Annual Specialist Accreditation Conference enables legal practitioners to stay current and ahead of the curve in their area of accreditation.

The event includes panel discussions, interactive sessions and opportunities for delegates to network with their industry peers. The conference will feature presentations from experts on important substantive law issues relevant to our accredited specialists.

The Law Society has been working closely with the Specialist Accreditation Advisory Committees in key areas to ensure the 2025 program is relevant, current and engaging.

THE LAW SOCIETY OF NSW

The 2025 conference will cover five specialist legal streams: Commercial Litigation, Family Law, Property Law, Personal Injury Law and Elder Law, Wills & Estates.

Specialist Accreditation Conference attendees can claim up to 10 CPD units; each specialist stream includes six hours of live in-person seminars and four hours of online webinars.

Specialists must obtain 10 additional CPD points for each accreditation they have. The Specialist Accreditation Conference which is pitched at the specialist level, is to enable specialists to continue developing their skills and knowledge once accreditation has been obtained.
