'LAWYER' AND 'SOLICITOR' – WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

- 'Australian lawyer' means a person admitted to the Australian legal profession in NSW or any other jurisdiction.¹
- 'solicitor' means an Australian legal practitioner whose Australian practising certificate is not subject to a condition that the holder is authorised to engage in legal practice as or in the manner of a barrister only.²
- A person cannot take or use the titles 'solicitor', 'counsel', 'legal practitioner', 'attorney', or 'barrister' without a current Australian practising certificate.³
